

So if you close your eyes
You can see what you want
And if you close your mind
You can ~~be what you want~~ Feel deep in your soul
Now if you close your ears
You can hear the Universe

Its happening everywhere
People waking up
Together facing a great new dawn
Reaching out for love

So come on all you people
What are you waiting for Come on brothers and sisters
Behold an open door

Yes if you close your eyes
You can fly beyond the sky
And if you close your mind
You can see beyond your dreams
And if you close your hands
You can hold the Universe

Dont you see <sup>this is</sup> its our destiny
Dont you know its ment to be

Have you heard the good news
Put your faith in God
Help to build a brand new world
Reach out for love

Do you believe in miracles
Have faith in things unseen
Take a good look around you
No its not a dream and So open up your eyes now ~~You can~~ fly beyond the sky ~~And~~ open up your mind and see beyond your dreams

So ~~Now~~ open up your hands
And behold the Universe

Dont you feel its coming
New changes everywhere
Fullfilling all we ever dreamed
A new world for all to share

Riseing out of bondage
Breaking down disguise
All together a brave new people
Reaching out for life

So if you close your eyes -
Behold - a brand new world!
